

INTERESTING YOUNG MEMBERS OF WELL KNOWN FAMILIES

Mrs. Hunter S. Marston and family of Port Chester. Left to right—Edgar, Elisabeth, Mrs. Marston, George (infant) and Mary. Photo by Bachrach.

Mrs. James W. Wadsworth, Jr., wife of Senator Wadsworth, and their children. Mrs. Wadsworth was Miss Alice Hay, daughter of the late John Hay. Photo by Bachrach.

Mrs. William Leslie Goff, who was Miss Mary E. Simons, and her little daughter. Photo by Davis & Sanford.

Mrs. Francis B. Sayre, daughter of the President, and her youngest child, Eleanor Paxson Sayre. Copyright, William Shewell Ellis.

Mrs. Henry E. Oelrichs and her daughter Blanche. Mrs. Oelrichs was Miss Esther Moreland of Philadelphia. Photo by Davis & Sanford.

"WE'RE GOING TO VOTE FOR GRANDPA HUGHES"

The chief recreation of Charles E. Hughes 3d is push-mobiling, at which he is quite expert. Copyright, American Press Association.

Mrs. Charles E. Hughes, Jr., and her two children, Charles E. Hughes 3d, 14 months old, and Henry Stuart Hughes, 5 weeks old. Justice Hughes's first view of his new grandson was during his visit to New York following his nomination. Copyright by Miehkin.

Young Mr. Hughes is a strong advocate of fresh air. He is here shown in his outdoor crib with his trained animals. Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.